Businessmen And FHA Aid "Clean Up" Project Of State President

County - wide Cleanup has become both a personal crusade and an organization effort for Merlyn Kay Martin, president of the Virginia Future Homemakers of America and senior at Appomattox High. More than 3,000 Litterbugs, being distributed to county motorists and others by the Appomattox Chapter FHA, attest to the hard work and cooperation of many people in a spring time "clean it up" campaign, says Merlyn Kay.

Thus far, Merlyn has spoken to Appomattox High School seniors, has talked with the mayor, Dr. S. R. Lawson, and has addressed the Oakville P-TA using as her theme "Keeping Virginia Safe and Beautiful."

Results so far, she says, include more trash containers in strategic areas of the Town of Appomattox. Posters have been posted at the high school and in the school busses. Trash cans may soon be installed in all school busses, says Merlyn Kay, to help keep litter "where it belongs."

Towmorrow evening (Friday) Merlyn continues her "anti-litter drive with a special address to the Altavista High School Future Homemakers, Allavista, Va. On April 11, Merlyn Kay will address the Cumberland High School FHA on the subject, "How FHA Has Helped Me to Become a Better Citizen."

The attractive FHA president says that local merchants deserve a big "thank you" for their help in the "anti-litter" campaign. Those who helped purchase the 3,750 litter bags include: Appomatox Oil Co., Farmers National Bank, Herndall's Cleaners, Maude's Restaurant, Patterson Drug Co., Sneed's Pharmacy, Timess-Virginian, Appomattox Hardware Co., Bank of Appomattox, Grinnell's Motor Co., J. E. Sears Co., Moses Motor Co., Poe Hardware, and West End Markets, Inc., all of Appomattox, plus Harvey's Market, Pamplin.

$4,125 Saved In Blood Program

Citizens of Appomattox used 165 pints of blood last year through the services of the Red Cross, fund chairman Reverend M. G. Stimpson said Tuesday. At $25 per pint, this amounts to $4,125 that local people saved through the cost-free Blood Program of the Red Cross.

New committees were named at a meeting last week as the local chapter continued plans to try to raise at least $2,000 in Appomattox county, a jump of almost $1,000 over last year's campaign gifts.

William Hunter continues as chairman and treasurer of the county Red Cross chapter. Vice chairman, George Abbitt; Secretary, Mrs. William D. Morris Home Service Secretary is Mrs. Don Moses. Blood program chairman is Dr. A. A. Fratrick. Mrs. Watkins Abbitt is Blood Recruitment Chairman. State Trooper James Crawford heads First Aid and Water Safety. Co-chairmen of the Jr. Red Cross are C. Bruce Chandler and Mrs. Ben Marshall. Co-chairman of the Disaster committee: Randall E. Hill and Rev. R. Q. Lawing. John Hix and Frank Clinchek are other directors of the organization. David Snow, Lynchburg, is Field Representative.

Jimmy Burke and John Goin are the passengers getting ready for a ride at the end of a school day at Appomattox High. Cancer Sunday Set April 5

Needs of the County Loan Closet were discussed at Wednesday evening's meeting of the Appomattox Unit, American Cancer Society.

Mrs. Libby Sneed, new service committee chairman, said "we don't have a wheelchair available, and there is at present only one hospital bed in storage." Mrs. Sneed reported that football season makes the heaviest demand on crutches available in the Rescue Squad loan closet.

Mrs. Sneed said that her committee would probably purchase an additional wheelchair with money budgeted for local cancer patients by the Appomattox Unit. The Appomattox Rescue Squad has charge of the Loan Closet located at Sneed's Pharmacy.

Unit member Dr. J. A. Mathews said that "lots of residents are unaware of the other organizations who have contributed to the Loan Closet: Piedmont Heart Association, the American Legion, and the Appomattox Unit, American Cancer Society."

Mrs. Franz Chuchek, co-chairman with Mrs. Ed Cawthorne for April's Cancer Crusade, announced that April 5 has been designated Cancer Sunday. The local unit's Fair Share goal this year is $1400, she said.
